(Green Base Outpost 4): _Captain_ _Mien, sir. We have received some interesting readings from Satellite number 37. _

(Office 12): _Report._

(Green Base Outpost 4):_ We are losing the feed. There is some interference from an unknown source, sir. _

(Office 12): _Do we have a pinpoint on the source?_

(Green Base Outpost 4): _No, sir. But, whatever is causing this is getting closer. It seems . . . . Sir, we just lost the feed completely!_

(Office 12): _What?!_

(Green Base Outpost 4): _And . . . and we are getting more static from Satellites 24 and 36. Wait . . . we just lost the feed to those too. _

(Office 12): _Pull Satellites 24 and 35 around and run the video to my computer._

(Office 12): _Use our telescopes. I need to know what is happening. _

(Green Base Outpost 4): _One moment sir . . . patching now. . . . . Oh, my God. _

(Office 12): _Dear Jesus. . . . . Are those Combine cruisers? _

(Green Base Outpost 4): . . . _Uh, give me a second to enhance the image. _

. . . the computer reads that those are not Combine ships. I have never seen those before.

(Office 12): _How many ships do you count?_

(Green Base Outpost 4): _. . . There are thirty unidentified aircraft, each one the length of Texas. _

(Office 12): _Good God. . . . where is this fleet headed. _

(Green Base Outpost 4): _All over the world. One is headed towards our position . . . E.T.A. twenty five minutes. _

(Office 12): _Move to protocol seven. I want squads to . . ._

(Green Base Outpost 4): _Sir! We have lost contact with Dallas! Report says that these ships are already deploying ground troops at every major city. _

(Office 12): _Get our men into position! We have incoming and . . . _
